Minutes of the October Meeting were tabled to the next meeting

Fall Program report- Numbers were decent, and facilities were used to the max. Soccer had little cancellations due to the good weather.

Winter Sign-ups- PJ Reported good basketball numbers, and ok wrestling numbers. Programs have begun. Adult volleyball is down a bit. Pickleball and Table tennis numbers are ok.. Walking club hasn't got off the ground. AM exercise has been going ok. Larry Flint expressed an interest in helping with the instructor shortage. Lilyan Wright (long time instructor) passed away. A spring service is planned.

Rick, Larry and Kim will help out with the Chili Cook-off planned for December 9th starting at 4pm.

The 50th celebration will happen on Friday December 1st, with volunteers from the present and past thanked with a stand up comedian.

Green up day was discussed, and PJ reported some more groups on board. The senior center folks were mentioned as another group to reach out to, as well as Montessori school.

Next meeting will be in January due to the holidays.
